

CONVERSING WITH THE TREE

BOOK 3

SAFINA SIMI

ken and Ava pressed on in their exploration of the enchanted forest, their hearts brimming with anticipation. The ladybug had departed, leaving them with the precious gift of its wisdom and courage. They treasured the scroll, understanding its significance as the key to their magical journey.

As they delved deeper into the forest, they noticed something extraordinary. The tall, majestic trees appeared to be engaged in whispered conversations with one another. Their leaves rustled and swayed, creating a gentle melody that filled the air. ken and Ava couldn't believe their senses, were the trees truly speaking?
