

HOME AT LAST

BOOK 5

JOURNEY CONTINUES...

SAFINA SIMI

As the sun began to set, casting a warm glow in the forest, ken and Ava found themselves deep within the enchanting forest. The once familiar paths had vanished, leaving them feeling confused and unsure. The sky painted beautiful shades of orange and pink, telling them the approaching evening. "ken, I think we've lost our way," Ava said, her voice filled with concern. ken nodded, his brows furrowed with worry.

Just as they were thinking of retracing their steps, a low rumble echoed through the forest, causing the ground to tremble beneath their feet. Fear gripped their hearts as they recognized the sound, it was the dreaded Gungie Gungie Gee monster of the forest that was near. With fear driving them, they hurriedly searched for a hiding place. They darted behind thick tree trunks, peering through the grasses to catch a glimpse of the fearsome creature. The Gungie Gungie Gee was known for its mischievous nature, and encountering it was the last thing they wanted.

